

POSITION: Project Manager
WITH FOCUS ON BIOPHARMACEUTICAL PROJECTS

Dome Construction, a successful San Francisco based General Contractor / Construction Manager is seeking an experienced Project Manager for their San Francisco office.

- 4+ years of experience in project management, with technical knowledge of all phases of construction and experience in managing multiple complex projects; with a primary focus on Biopharmaceutical projects the San Francisco Bay Area
- BS degree in engineering, construction management or architecture
- Demonstrated experience leading a construction project team.
- Understanding of and ability to develop CPM schedules.
- Experience in reviewing conceptual estimates for Biopharm projects
- High level of computer literacy in PC programs, especially Word, Excel and MS Project.
- Ability to present him/herself well to clients and architects from initial contacts to presentations to contract negotiations to project completion.
- Marketing/Business development skills interact and establish relationships with architects/owners.
- Estimating experience would be a plus but not required.
- Knowledge of local subcontractors and local industry conditions.
- Superior organizational and multi-tasking skills
- An established relationship with Biopharm clients is a plus.

We offer:

- A competitive salary
- Opportunity for advancement
- 401K with employer matching (up to 3%)
- Profit Sharing Plan
- Excellent healthcare, dental and vision benefits
- Section 125 benefits (Healthcare, childcare pre-tax reimbursement)
- Vehicle reimbursement / Company vehicle

Please submit your resume via email (contactus@domeconst.com) and be sure to put BioPharm PROJECT MANAGER in the subject line.