

POSITION: Project Manager
WITH FOCUS ON HEALTHCARE PROJECTS

Dome Construction, a successful San Francisco based General Contractor / Construction Manager is seeking an experienced Project Manager for their San Francisco office.

Requirements Include:

- Five or more years of managing complex medical office building and OSHPD construction
- BS degree in engineering, construction management or architecture.
- Familiarity with estimating, OSHPD standards, and healthcare facilities including MRI, radiology, CT scan, emergency rooms, pharmacies, operating rooms, blood laboratories, ambulatory surgery etc.
- CPM scheduling, subcontractor contract administration and cost control expertise.
- Demonstrated experience leading a construction project team consisting of a project engineer, project coordinator and superintendent.
- Capable of managing concurrent projects and developing relationships with sophisticated healthcare clients, architects, IOR's and MEP engineers.
- Knowledge and proficiency with MS Project, Excel and Word.
- Experience with Prolog, FileMakerPro, Expedition or similar project organization data base programs helpful.

We offer:

- A competitive salary
- Opportunity for advancement
- 401K with employer matching (up to 3%)
- Profit Sharing Plan
- Excellent healthcare, dental and vision benefits
- Section 125 benefits (Healthcare, childcare pre-tax reimbursement)
- Vehicle reimbursement / Company vehicle

Please submit your resume via email (contactus@domeconst.com) and be sure to put HEALTHCARE PROJECT MANAGER in the subject line.